HANCOCK 1980

1980 was a year of growth for Hancock, both for the town and for many of its individuals. The events remembered here are but a small cross-section of the life of our town.

Cold, clear days produced ice for some of the best skating in years on Norway Pond, with as many as 80 skaters counted on one January afternoon.

The Rev. Hollis Hastings was installed as the new minister of the Church in January, and he and his wife, Marjorie, were welcomed to their new home at the parsonage on School Street.

The library, a vital part of our town, continued to receive gifts of books and magazines. Figures compiled for the year revealed circulation increased from 14,788 in 1978 to 16,084 the next year. Sally Hamilton continued to arrange for a variety of art exhibits monthly throughout the year. And, a "Friends of the Library" group was formed in November.

Dorothy Schroeffer was named consultant in Title I (ESEA) with the N.H. State Dept. of Education. In her new position she helps school districts with programs for educationally disadvantaged children. Daughter Nancy toured Moscow in February, one part of her experience as an ICYE exchange student in Finland.

Sheilia Adams and Sarah Weston Hutchins agreed to head up a committee to compile a genealogy for the new Town History.

At age 97, Earl Otis, Hancock's oldest citizen, and Dorothy Robertson were married on Saturday, February 16.

The Depot Committee continued to sponsor fund raising events to bring them closer to their goal of restoring the old train depot. This year's project was the replacement of the old roof with cedar wood shingles. In July, a full house heard pianist Aleck Karis perform an all-Chopin benefit concert for the fund.

Two long-time Hancock residents celebrated birthdays — Bessie Hanson her 86th in February and T. Bertram Manning his 89th in May.

The Village Farm house, built sometime around the 1790s, was restored by Dick and Janet Quinn. The son of former owner Joe Quinn also reopened the cider mill and farm stand in the fall.

A sugar maple tree at Mathewson's Brooks' Side Farm was proclaimed the largest in the state and second largest in the nation by the Society for the Protection of N.H. Forests. The giant tree, measured by Philip and Mark Mathewson for a contest sponsored by the Harris Center, is 18'6" in circumference, is 94' high and has a crown spread of 60'5".

Harold and Myrtle Colburn celebrated their 50th year of marriage at a surprise dinner party.

A fire house building committee was appointed and several special town meetings were held before voters approved nearly $150,000 for a new fire station on the Bennington Road.

The 12th annual town litter clean-up, sponsored by the Conservation Commission, was held in early May. Little League coaches Almon Senechal and Christopher Joseph signed up players for another season of baseball that same afternoon.

In May, former Hancock resident Barry Cass was ordained into the ministry at the United Church in Penacook.

The Woman's Club held a fashion show to help fund their community needs projects.

Hancock Girl Scouts participated in a "discovery week-end" in Portsmouth, along with leaders Elaine Paquette and Helene Wardman.

A 36 piece group from the Pease Air Force Band played for the Memorial Day Parade.

Children at the Elementary School held an "Honor America Day" in late May at the suggestion of James Newcomb. The day was a culmination of activities done over several weeks to teach children about this nation. In December, sixth grader Rebecca Millman became editor of the school newspaper, The Hancock Headliner.

In June, a plexiglass bottom prototype boat built for the U.S. Navy was launched for a trial run on Norway Pond by designer John Roper and builders John Hitchcock and Robert Kierstead.

Young and old alike made contributions to the energy-saving cause. Randy St. John, a fifth grader, created an award winning collage for Public Service Company's energy-saving poster contest. Frank Bramley received a $100 grant from the U.S. Dept. of Energy for his energy-saving thermostat which he designed for occasional-use buildings.

Self-taught Hancock woodmaker, David Huntington, earned a trip to California in July for a seminar with one of the world's greatest craftsmen, James Krenov.

Two brothers, Thomas and Herbert Bamford, purchased the former Milford Inn, now named the Beached Whale.

In July Kelly Brown achieved the highest proficiency level available in the U.S. Pony Club — an A level, representing the top 1% of the membership.

The completed Hancock Quilt, depicting local landmarks, was displayed on Old Home Day. The Historical Society put out a folder commemorating the quilt with a color photograph and a diagram identifying the pictorial squares, their contributors and a list of the quilters. "Miss Piggy" assisted the Woman's Club in copping the grand prize in the parade for their portrayal of women through the ages.

Local youths assisted Hancock Police in recovering American flags stolen from the Hancock Cash Market and the Common in September.

Over 50 residents met to discuss the Juggernaut reservoir supply situation at a public hearing in late September. Compliance with state and federal regulations for open water supplies requires constant monitoring, they were told. A committee to assist the water commissioners was appointed.

In September, Mary C. Peabody died at her Valley Farm home. Mrs. Peabody, who worked tirelessly for those principles in which she believed, will long be remembered for her efforts on behalf of school prayer in Hancock, her contributions to the revival of a fireworks display on July 4 and, most recently, the Farm Fair in July and the Harvest Festival in November.

Enrollment in the Cooperative Preschool for four and five year olds increased substantially. Joyce Stevens of Hancock was hired to assist teacher Gail Novotny. And in October, a nursery school for three and four year olds was opened by Pamela Dalhaus and Constance Butson.

The Church held a retreat in October at the Cathedral of the Pines. The theme — "Making Christian Ethical Decisions."

Many Hancock people are turning to home occupations for both income and satisfaction. Variances for nearly a dozen home occupations were granted by the Board of Adjustment.

In October, the Men's Club, organized in 1956, was dissolved because of lack of interest.

Sargent Camp began rebuilding a new lodge to replace the one which burned in December 1979.

A Halloween party, sponsored by the Youth Group, drew over 100 people.

Richard Amidon was elected Representative to the General Court in November. The Guild sponsored the traditional Election Day Fair.

The Fire Department used their annual lottery proceeds to purchase and convert a used ambulance into a rescue and equipment truck for the town.

A 30-year-old Hancock woman, Donna Coughlan, escaped by helicopter from the Las Vegas MGM Grand Hotel fire which claimed nearly 90 lives in November.

Christopher Barnes of Middle Road was approved as the new Director of the MacDowell Colony.

In December, 12-year-old Cheryl Cass successfully underwent surgery at Mary Hitchcock for a tumor on one of the vertebrae, discovered incidentally because of a cheerleading injury.

The town was honored to present "On That Night", a story by Elizabeth Yates, at the community Christmas Eve pageant. A second service at 10 p.m. introduced the recently organized group of hand bellringers, directed by George Dechert. The bells were given in memory of his late wife, Ruth.

The year ended, as it has begun, with a town party. Many townpeople this year will celebrate the new year's arrival at a party sponsored by the Fire Dept. in the new fire station.

SELECTMEN'S REPORT

The Town of Hancock's growth rate slowed as construction everywhere was down. The interest rates being so high few people were building. This high rate affected the cost of the town borrowing. However, your Board of Selectmen, for the first time, invested in high interest short term notes, thus realizing about $2,000 income to help the cost.

The highway department enjoyed their first full year in their new building. They have been making inside improvements and are able to do many of the repairs themselves saving many labor costs.

The Town water department has many problems in trying to implement the clean water act in Hancock. We have an extremely nice reservoir and we believe it can be used. We have a committee making a complete study of our system. Bud Adams has completed a ten year project of clearing the hardwoods which were dropping their leaves in the water.

The Town voted a fire study committee to develop plans, find location, and oversee construction of a new fire house. The committee worked very hard and came back to the Town with plans and, later, for approval, which they received overwhelmingly. Now the Town has a very fine facility set on a location at the approach to the landfill. This was purchased land from Elijah West to combine with land already owned by Hancock.

The tax burden gets more demanding on Hancock as the income, being affected by the State tax distribution, leaves Hancock with small increases. Construction is down, interest rates up and very little increase in state tax income makes a challenge to us all to keep the services and operation of town government at the high quality we are used to.

With the growth of the town there is more demand on all the committees and services required from departments. These require more and more time from the members of the many boards and committees. We extend special thanks to town officials, town employees, volunteers, appointees and all citizens taking an active interest in town affairs, for all their help to the selectmen.

NEW HAMPSHIRE MUNICIPAL ASSOCIATION GOALS AND SERVICES

“The New Hampshire Municipal Association has existed since 1957. It is a non-partisan, non-profit organization whose 223 member cities and towns share a common interest in better local government.

NHMA provides a wide variety of services to its member communities. Among the services provided are: legal services, technical assistance, group insurance programs, personnel services and representation of municipal interests before federal, state, and administrative bodies.

The ultimate goal of these services is to help elected and appointed officials provide more efficient and effective government at the local level. In its representation of municipal interests before the state legislature, one of the primary goals of the Association is preventing excessive property tax burdens being placed on local governments.

NHMA also conducts many workshops and seminars dealing with local needs and problems. These include programs on such topics as municipal liability, welfare administration, assessing, land use and planning law, budgeting and labor relations. The biggest and most important learning opportunity offered by NHMA is its annual meeting. Held every fall, this meeting provides local officials with valuable program sessions designed to give local officials ideas and information they can put to use in their communities for the people they serve.

Further information about NHMA can be obtained from the Board of Selectmen or by contacting NHMA offices at 193 No. Main St., Concord, NH 03301.”

LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL

March 17, 1980

Board of Selectmen
Town of Hancock
P.O. Box 6
Hancock, New Hampshire 03449
Gentlemen:

Submitted herewith is the report of an examination and audit of the accounts of Arthur Tremblay, Tax Collector of the Town of Hancock, which was made by this Division under the provisions of R.S.A. 41:36. The examination covered the period from January 1, 1980 to March 1, 1980.

One of the enclosed audit reports must be given to the Town Clerk to be retained as part of the permanent Town records.

AUDIT PROCEDURE

Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as were considered necessary in the circumstances.

GENERAL COMMENTS

During the course of our audit for the period from January 1, 1980 to March 1, 1980 we noted that not all procedures were complied with regarding the tax sales held in fiscal year 1979.

The Tax Collector did not notify the registry of deeds of the properties sold at tax sale and it is unknown if the registry was notified of payments before sale.

The Tax Collector's record of tax sale also did not agree with the list of properties for which he requested payment from the Town Treasurer.

In this report we have used as unredeemed taxes for levy of 1978 the list as submitted to the Town.

CONCLUSION

The provisions of Chapter 71-A, Section 21, require that the auditor's summary of findings and recommendations (letter of transmittal) shall be published in the next annual report of the Town. Publication of the exhibits contained in this audit report is optional at the discretion of the Board of Selectmen. This letter, however, must be published in its entirety.

Respectfully submitted,
MUNICIPAL SERVICES DIVISION
DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE
ADMINISTRATION

AUDITOR'S REPORT

The auditors have examined the books and records of the town officers, library, and trust funds.

Bank books, bank statements, and securities have been examined and balances in the various accounts reconciled.

HANCOCK WATER DEPARTMENT

The engineering firm of DuBois and King, in their Juggernaut Pond Safe Yield report, indicated that the present reservoir would provide the water supply needs for the Town of Hancock for at least the next 20 years. However, the State Water Commission has directed that all public water systems provide full and complete treatment for surface supplies or replace it with a groundwater source.

In June Selectman John Roper and Water Commissioners Peter Moore and Wayne Fisher met with members of the State Water Supply and Pollution Control Commission in Concord to show cause why the Hancock Water Works should not be directed to, either, provide full treatment for Juggernaut Pond, or to develop groundwater sources and abandon our surface supply. Based on this meeting, a compliance schedule was set up to:

- a.) explore groundwater by July 1, 1982.
- b.) design of pumping facilities with storage, if necessary, by October 1, 1984.
- c.) construction of these facilities, if necessary, by January 1, 1988.

In September the Water Commissioners held an open meeting in the Town Hall to discuss this and other matters and to get some input from the townspeople as to what they think would be the best course of action to upgrade our water system. The general consensus was that we have a good water source in Juggernaut and maybe we could improve our system, so it would meet state and federal safe drinking water standards, without constructing an expensive water treatment plant, for which there are no federal funds presently available. Out of this meeting, a five member committee was appointed to assist the Water Commissioners in a thorough study of the present function and quality of Hancocks water system and our necessity to comply with the many water quality laws and regulations set forth in the Safe Drinking Water Act of 1977.

Robert Strombeck continues to take care of the chlorinator station and is now required to monitor turbidity (water clarity) on a daily basis. He has been certified, along with Robert Fogg, as a treatment plant operator, under the grandfather clause.

Signs have been installed around the reservoir posting it as a "Public Water Supply."

The water level was down in September, due to the dry summer, but melting snow and spring rains should bring the level back to normal.

Robert Fogg, Water Commissioner
Peter Moore, Water Commissioner

HANCOCK PLANNING BOARD

The Planning Board in 1980 held twelve regular meetings and three public hearings concerning proposed amendments to the zoning ordinances, and improvements on a scenic road. Eleven subdivisions were approved during the year.

For action by ballot at the 1981 town meeting, the Board has prepared two proposed amendments to the zoning ordinances. Both pertain to reductions in the area of the residential zoning district.

REPORT OF FOREST FIRE WARDEN AND STATE FOREST FIRE SERVICE

Forest Fire Prevention: Your Business, Our Business, Good Business. Forest fire prevention slogans have been seen in association with Smokey Bear since the late nineteen forties when a national effort to check the spread of forest fires was implemented.

New Hampshire residents recognized that forest fire prevention and suppression was the responsibility of every citizen, a half century before this national campaign, when our legislature established our first forest fire laws in 1903. Since that date, the State has appointed a town/city forest fire warden who is responsible for forest fire law enforcement in his municipality.

All fires kindled out of doors when there is no snow on the ground must be approved in writing by the forest fire warden before being kindled. All forest fires must be suppressed by the warden and his deputies as soon as they are reported. The cost of fire suppression is shared jointly by the town/city and the State of New Hampshire, as are forest fire prevention and forest fire training costs.

This state and local municipality cooperative forest fire program has given New Hampshire one of the best forest fire records in the United States.

In 1980 the trustees regretfully accepted the resignations of Elsie Frank, Head Librarian, and Harriet Hampson, Children's Librarian. Both were very competent. During the summer months we were grateful for volunteer help who worked under the capable direction of Doris Rogers, now the Head Librarian. To fill the vacancies caused by the resignations, we were very fortunate in obtaining Marjorie Hastings as Children's Librarian and Icy Lent as Associate Librarian.

The long range library improvement plan which involves an expansion of our floor space will require a considerable amount of money. Therefore only necessary minor improvements were made during the year. We installed a warning light now located in the front window to the left of the front door. This light when on will warn that the heating system is not functioning properly.

It was decided that we should follow the example of other libraries and form a group locally to be called "The Friends of the Library". Larry Hayes agreed to organize this group. The purpose is to bring together persons interested in the library, to establish a closer relationship between the library and citizens of the town and to foster greater use of the library and its services.

We are grateful for the continued generosity of the Jensen Foundation, other individuals and organizations who donated books, money and other items.

The McNaughton Book Service has been continued and we have purchased at a considerable discount a number of books for the library's permanent collection.

The library owes a debt of gratitude to many people for helping to make 1980 a successful year.

First there are the trustees: Jack Link, our new chairman; Lew Tuttle, new member and treasurer; Dolores Daniels; and Ted Wells, now trustee emeritus and still active and working. Few townsfolk realize the countless hours of time and labor contributed by this dedicated group.

In the late spring came disaster! Elsie Frank, head librarian, and Harriet Hampson, children's librarian, resigned for reasons of health. The sudden loss of these two smiling faces left the library forlorn.

We were fortunate that Fran Russ, with her wealth of library experience and intimate knowledge of the Hancock library, was available as a substitute throughout the summer. Laurie Hayes, who had previously spent many hours of voluntary service and was therefore familiar with library procedures, came after school hours and Saturday afternoons to work until she left for camp in June.

We are also grateful for the host of volunteers who took over for the summer the task of checking books in and out at the front desk, thus releasing the librarian on duty for other tasks. A sign-up sheet on the desk was soon filled and visitors to the library never knew which of many smiling faces would greet them as they entered. The volunteer system has proved so helpful that the trustees decided to continue it indefinitely.

It was a stroke of good fortune for all concerned that Icy Lent and Marge

Hastings became interested in the Hancock library and applied for the two vacancies. Two more capable and talented librarians would be hard to find. In July the trustees appointed Icy to the position of associate librarian and Marge to that of children's librarian. They started their regular duties in September and also traveled weekly to Keene for a ten week course in Library Techniques. Both are hard at work putting their newly acquired knowledge to good and helpful use.

Sally Hamilton continues to arrange for art exhibits to adorn the walls of our two front rooms. Visitors are attracted to the library by these exhibitions of largely Hancock and Monadnock Region talent. We thank Sally and the many gifted people who share their handiwork and hobbies with us both on the walls and in the display case.

Frances Russ has faithfully kept the Hancock library in the local news with her excellent bits of library happenings, new books, and other items of interest.

Special thanks also are due Larry Hayes and the entire Hayes family for always being ready to help when there's a need. Whether it's to carry a load of books, repair the record player or start a "Friends of the Library" organization we can depend on Larry to be willing and able.

We are grateful too for the many good friends who donate books and magazines for library use and for the annual Old Home Day Sale, as well as for the many people who came to carry out materials, set up tables, and become salesmen on Old Home Day. In 1980 our sale was especially blessed with Elsie Frank and Harriet Hampson in their accustomed places looking happy and well. Everyone is glad that Elsie and Harriet have recovered from their operations and are maintaining their interest in the library. At present Elsie is working every Saturday; Harriet is a frequent substitute, both are among the library volunteers and both are serving on the Book Selection Committee.

So many good friends have remembered the library during the past year with gifts of money and books that to give each of them individual credit in this brief report would fill an extra page or two. We truly appreciate each and every one. There are, however, a few that deserve special mention.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Seeman presented the library with a set of the Encyclopedia Britannica and all the year books through 1979, a valuable addition to our research area.

From Hope Pettegrew the library received a one year subscription to COBBLESTONE, a new history magazine for children. Hope is an editor of this publication as well as one of its founders.

Recent visitors to the library have been charmed with the beauty of the white Italian marble bust of a young girl reading a book which now graces the fireplace mantel. Our sincere thanks go to Lois Daloz who chose the library as an appropriate home for this treasured possession of her mother's.

It is a pleasure to report that as the Hancock Town Library faces a new year we have among our trustees, librarians, volunteers, and patrons kept our tried and true friends and added some delightful new ones.

RECREATION COMMITTEE REPORT

The largest part of the recreation committees budget goes for running the beach. Most of which goes for salaries of the lifeguards and instructor. New laws are being applied for these people to be more qualified in swimming and first aid.

The docks are installed and taken out by the members of the recreation committee. In 1980 there were 102 youngsters taking swimming lessons.

Twenty-five people, counting youngsters and adults took tennis lessons this year. Dr. Aubrey Gould volunteers his time to each these lessons. The tennis program is self supporting.

A soccer program was started this year with a great deal of success. Forty-three children from grades 4-6 participated. We are asking for money to buy equipment such as balls, netting and lumber to make the goals. Once this is done, this program should also be self supporting.

I wish to thank all members of the committee for all their help and time.

Respectfully submitted,

HANCOCK ADVISORY COMMITTEE

During 1980, the committee held public hearings for the regular Town Meeting in March and the Special Town Meeting in August. For the regular town meeting, all money articles were carefully considered and recommendations were distributed at Town Meeting. For the Special Town Meeting, which considered the construction of a new fire station, a hearing was held and the committee recommended approval. It was the feeling of the committee that the need for a new fire station had been established by the Long Range Planning Committee and that the Fire House Building Committee had done a thorough and careful job. The article passed and the building has been completed.

Recommendations on warrant articles involving expenditures of money in the 1981 Town Warrant are included with the Town Report.

BOARD OF ADJUSTMENT

The following information is provided to make Board procedures more understandable to the general public and particularly to those who may make appeals. By law, the responsibility for correct preparation of the application and presentation at the public hearing rests with the applicant.

The Board of Adjustment is one of four functions required in a system of zoning. The Planning Board has the primary responsibility for proposing the ordinance and any amendments. The Town Voters, at the annual Town Meeting, enact and amend the zoning ordinance. The Selectmen, through the Building Inspector, enforce the ordinance. The Board of Adjustment hears appeals and administers special provisions of the ordinance. Each of these components has its own functions and may not perform those of any other group. As an example, The Board of Adjustment may not do anything which would have the effect of changing or amending the ordinance.

Most of the work done by the Board of Adjustment consists of hearing two types of appeals. The first type is the Exception. When the ordinance specifically provides for Exceptions, the Board must decide if they apply in a particular situation and if so, assure that provisions made by the voters are applied. Only the voters can establish Exceptions and related conditions. As an example, the Town permits light industry in the rural and agricultural zone under special conditions.

The other type of appeal is a Variance which is a relaxation of the strict interpretation of the ordinance if certain conditions are present. These conditions are quite specific but do allow for Board judgement. In exercising this judgement, however, the Board must be particularly careful not to violate the spirit and intent of the ordinance.

State law determines the manner in which appeals are to be handled and also provides guidelines for all Board action. Townspeople wishing to make either type of appeal should become acquainted with these rules and with the ordinance before applying. Board members are always willing to discuss these matters prior to any formal application and to supply relevant information. Once formal application is made, however, the Board must balance the request of the applicant with the wishes of the voters as expressed by the zoning ordinance.

CONSERVATION COMMISSION ANNUAL REPORT

During monthly meetings, the Conservation Commission performed its basic function as a study-guardian body. The Commission studied better ways to handle the recycling problem; studied how to manage the small wood lot; assisted the selectmen in managing the cutting around the town's water supply and in implementing other state edicts on land use.

Commission members conducted their annual May litter clean-up day and provided a full sponsorship to Camp Interlocken, an environmental camp, for Paul Stevens.

REPORT OF THE HISTORY COMMITTEE

The Hancock History Committee responsible, with the help of many, for completing the story of THE SECOND HUNDRED YEARS OF HANCOCK, NEW HAMPSHIRE, published in 1979, is happy to report that the book has had excellent reviews, has sold well and new orders are being received regularly. For a detailed financial account see the Report of the Town Treasurer.

One task remains, the completion of a page of omissions and corrections. When this "Addenda and Errata" has been printed a copy will be sent to each of the persons, libraries or companies who ordered the history by mail, and inserted into each of the unsold books. People who bought copies on the day of presentation or later at the library or elsewhere may pick up their inserts at the library or town office building.

With its work finished this history committee tenders its resignation.

Sheilia Adams and Sarah Hutchins, appointed by the Selectmen to coordinate the second volume, a genealogy, automatically become the nucleus of a new Hancock History Committee. We wish them success and the kind of cooperation from fellow townspeople that all the committees before them have enjoyed. They have asked that a part of this report be a request that as many as possible include pictures with their family histories. These may be turned in to the Hancock Town Library sometime within the next two years.

COMMON COMMISSION REPORT

Members of the Common Commission continue their mission to maintain the town properties and grounds so that they are attractive to both visitors and the townspeople of Hancock.

The irreplaceable ornamental cast iron fountain at the head of Main Street, in the traffic triangle, is with caring maintenance, holding up well. Likewise, the time-honored bandstand, with frequent refurbishings to withstand the constant onslaught of mischievousness, is holding up well.

The American flag and rope was found missing from the pole on the Common on August 6. Flags which normally fly at the Cash Market and Post Office were also found to be missing. Chief Edward Coughlan was able to recover the flags in a few short weeks. After arranging for the assistance of Peterborough Fire Chief Larry Bishop and his son David and the Peterborough high extension fire ladder truck, Chief Coughlan climbed the fire ladder to affix a new rope to the pulley atop the flagpole. On September 15, Commission members raised the American flag to its customary position above the Common. Many thanks to Police Chief Coughlan, Peterborough Fire Chief Larry Bishop and his son David for their teamwork assistance in this caper.

A new American flag, the gift of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hughes received on December 15th, was raised to replace the old flag which was fast showing signs of ravage caused by strong winter winds.
